

Brighten
somebody's season!

'Tis the season to celebrate so many ways on so many different days.

However, not everybody's days are bright.

Many children and their families are living with a host of challenging issues related to poverty, addictions and mental health.

Together, we can change the present for the vulnerable children, youth, adults and families who use Enviros' services.

You can brighten somebody's season simply by making a donation to Enviros.

Make spirits brighter, become a star fundraiser.

Check out the calendar of days, packed full of fun. Why not make a donation on your favorite one?

‘Tis the season to celebrate so many ways on so many different days.

Check out the calendar of days, packed full of fun. The aim is to celebrate Enviros diverse culture by celebrating many different ways on different days.

For example: Did you know, November 17 is Take a Hike Day? The mission of the day is simple, wear your most comfortable hiking shoes and take a hike.

Please connect with Christy (cherdman@enviros.org) if you noticed we missed a day you celebrate.

Are you a maker, baker, or crafty impersonator?

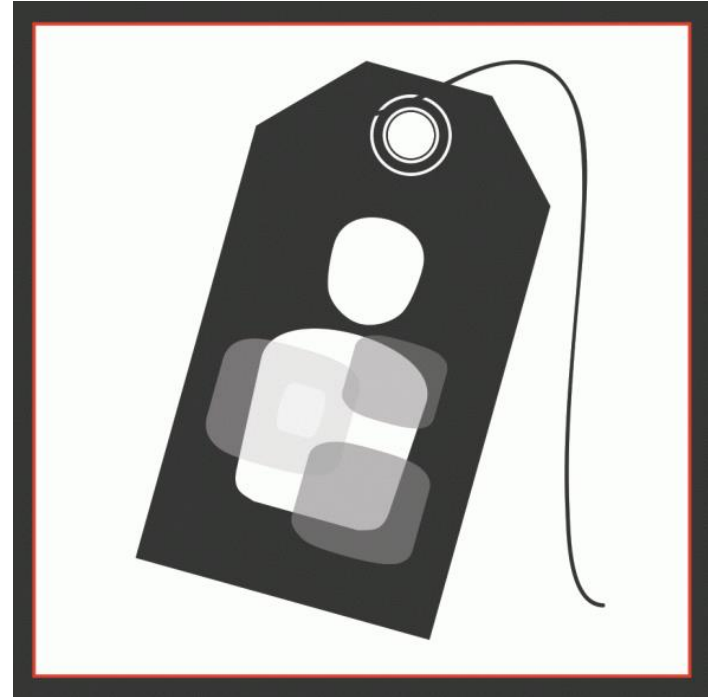

To celebrate the season, Enviros is hosting a holiday market & Open House.

Where: Enviros Head Office

When: December 10, 2015

Time: 12:00 pm to 4:30 pm

Contact Christy Herdman at cherdman@enviros.org for details on how to become a holiday market vendor.
